

AUDITIONS FOR CABARET

Auditions will take place on Sunday 12 June for one of the most successful musicals of all time. CABARET features the songs Wilkommen, Don't Tell Mama, Mein Herr, Maybe This Time, Money and the title number. It has music by John Kander, lyrics by Fred Ebb, book by Joe Masteroff, based on the play by John Van Druten and stories by Christopher Isherwood. Made famous by Liza Minelli as Sally Bowles, and recently by Annie Lennox in the same role in London, this is a musical with a big comment on society and makes for some truly gripping acting and singing roles.

'More than just the entertainment of the 'Kit Kat Klub', this musical make serious comments about how people and love can be so easily affected by war and politics. No matter how much we try to ignore what is happening around us, we are all affected. CABARET reflects the rise of Nazism in 1930s Berlin but it remains just as relevant today as we see similar sentiments continue to thrive across the continents' explains Darryl Spijkers, director of this musical.

The Playhouse presents this production with choreography by Sume Lotter-Christodoulou to be staged in early December 2022. Closing a week before the Christmas holiday season, there is the possibility of a January run. Dancers do not need to prepare but singers and actors must look at specific songs and accents.

'All auditionees should understand and respect the mature content of the musical and be over the age of seventeen. There are roles for performers of a more mature age which makes this show very special. We hope to see many new faces' says Christalla Fernandes, the production manager.
